

Alex Gray is currently President of Congdon Web, LLC, a web services company, and has served in this role since 2002. Congdon Web currently specializes in website development, website hosting, search engine optimization/marketing and secure online backups. In addition to his responsibilities at Congdon Web, he provides consulting services to VPSI, Inc. (a transportation company), Woodland Realty (real estate development) and other organizations including finance and banking institutions. His consulting work is primarily focused on process improvement, cost reduction, risk management and acquisitions.

Prior to joining Congdon Web, he served as Senior Vice President and CIO of American Investment Bank, N.A. (formerly Tranex Credit Corp.) from 1999 - 2002. His duties with AIB primarily focused on the management of the company's technology infrastructure and process improvement through the use of technology. Prior to the acquisition of Tranex by AIB, he served Tranex as the Senior Vice President – Corporate Affairs from 1994 – 1999. His duties at Tranex included oversight of Human Resources, Information Technology, Purchasing, and Facilities Management.

He began his career in 1985 at locally based Marsh Supermarkets, Inc. where he managed retail locations with sales in excess of $50M.

He holds a Bachelor of Science from Ball State University where he majored in Accounting with a minor in Political Science.
